

He picked up the tab...

but she'll never stop paying for the abortion.

Over 60% of abortions involve some form of coercion.

"His family pushed for the abortion. They were caring for my children when I was sick. They said I was being selfish. Part of me died that day. ... I numbed my pain, but it did not go away; it just waited." -Lori

"I thought I must be crazy ... my life was quickly falling into a million pieces. I didn't know if I would ever be able to put all the pieces back together." -Sandy

"My abortion didn't end my pain, it began it. When I tried to confide in friends, they shook their heads with disapproving looks. It made me feel so alone." -Patty
